

Chat

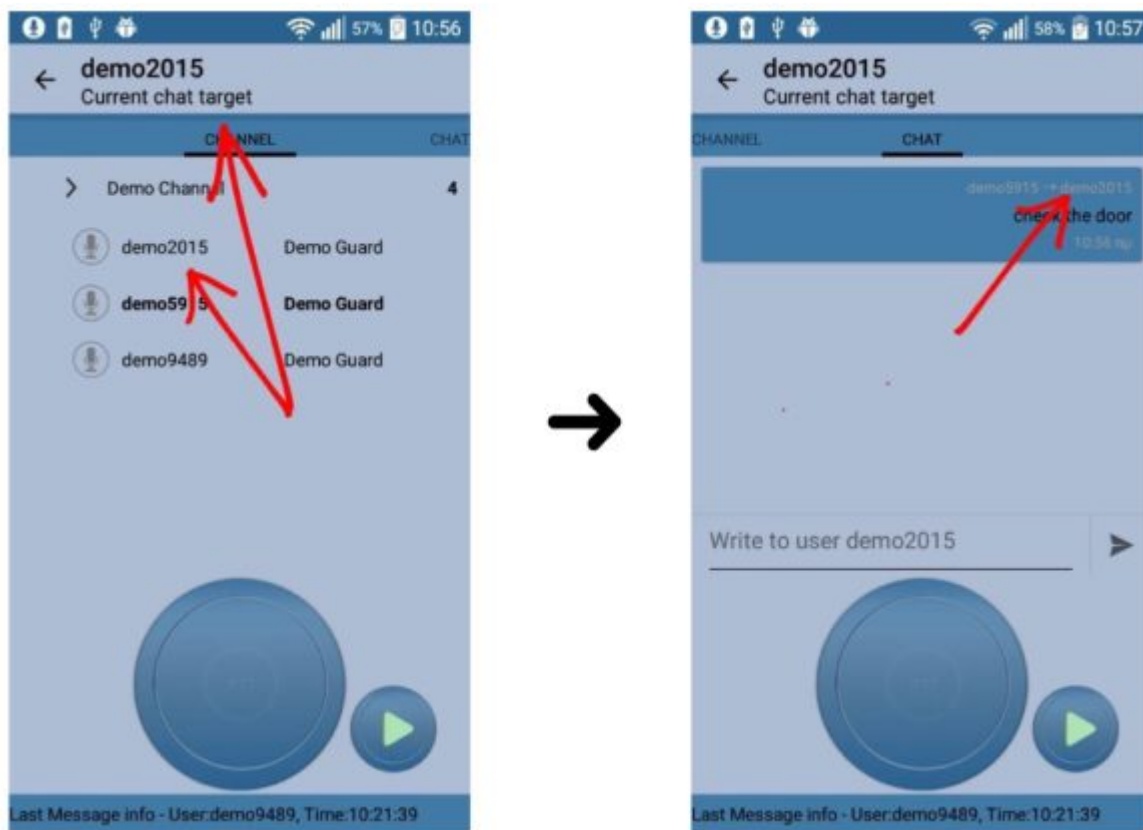

When user press "x" button all the messages from the chat are deleted.

The user can send a message to everybody in the channel. Every text message sent includes information on the message sender, receiver as well as the message sending timestamp.

A guard can also send a private test message to another guard. First he has to select a guard and then send the text message.