

Report Templates

After the creation of a report the user is given the option of selecting layout options for generating and exporting the report:

- MyTemplate: select your own very personal template displaying the logo and information about your company.
- Default Report Template: select this template to apply the most basic layout options. No filters or extra information will be displayed in your report, just the data table.